Press Release

Jamarcus Davis pleaded guilty to third-degree-felony domestic violence in the Mercer County Court of Common Pleas last week. Davis has twice before been convicted of domestic-violence offenses in Mercer County, which enhanced this charge to a third-degree felony. The Celina Police Department responded to an emergency call in January 2026 and through multiple lines of investigation, identified video footage of the incident. That footage has been provided to the judge to view and consider before the sentencing that is scheduled for May 13, 2026.
