Mercer County Prosecutor's Office Press Release

Jordan Jackson recently pleaded guilty to six counts of fifth-degree-felony theft, five counts of fifth-degree-felony misuse of credit cards, one count of fifth-degree-felony theft from a person in a protected (elderly) class, four counts of first-degree-misdemeanor misuse of credit cards, and two counts of first-degree-misdemeanor theft. These charges were the result of Jackson's stealing of cash and credit cards from cars in various locations throughout Mercer County during the late-night or early-morning hours of multiple days in July 2025. Detectives and deputies with the Mercer County Sheriff's Office led an extensive investigation that culminated in Jackson's identification as the culprit and ultimate arrest in November 2025. Jackson is scheduled to be sentenced for these 18 offenses in the Mercer County Court of Common Pleas on May 13, 2026.
