Mercer County Prosecutor's Office Press Release

On May 13, 2026, Jamarcus Davis was sentenced to thirty months in prison for third-degree-felony domestic violence. Davis has twice before been convicted of domestic-violence offenses in Mercer County, which enhanced the felony level of this offense. The Celina Police Department responded to an emergency call in January 2026 and through multiple lines of investigation, identified video footage of the incident. That footage was provided to the judge to view and consider before sentencing.
