Mercer County Prosecutor's Office Press Release

On May 13, 2026, Jordan Jackson was sentenced to probation, to begin after he completes a term at The Worth Center, a community based correctional facility, located in Allen County. Jackson was ordered to pay an aggregate of $300 in restitution to four of the victims of his late-night thefts from automobiles that occurred throughout various parts of Mercer County in July 2025. Detectives and deputies with the Mercer County Sheriff's Office led an extensive investigation that culminated in Jackson's identification as the culprit and ultimate arrest in November 2025.
