Mercer County Prosecutor's Office Press Release

On July 29, 2026, Scott E. Froning pled guilty to Possession of LSD, a felony of the fifth degree. The charge stemmed from an incident that occurred around 11:00 PM on June 20, 2026. Froning was acting erratically in the parking lot of business on East Market Street in Celina. While speaking with officers, Froning took an item out of his pocket and threw it. When officers collected the item, they discovered that it contained LSD.

Froning will be sentenced on August 26, 2026. He faces a maximum of 12 months in prison and a $2,500 fine.
